AUDI SNOWBOARD SERIES – CONDITIONS OF PARTICIPATION 2017/2018

- The closing date for registering is as per the announcement.
- Entry fee and ticket prices are as per the respective Basic Info Sheets. These can be downloaded via the registration tool.
- The number of competitors is limited. Early registration via the on-line tool is recommended.
- The online registration and payment is CHF 10.00 cheaper than the registration or payment on site.
- Entry fees or ticket charges prepaid on line will be refunded in the case of illness or injury on production of a medical certificate.
- Competitors are responsible for arranging their own insurance cover.
- The wearing of helmets is compulsory.
- The wearing of protective gear (back protection) is recommended.
- Snowboard and bindings must be in good working order and correctly adjusted.
- By registering, competitors who are still minors declare that their parents or legal guardians are aware of their participation in the Audi Snowboard Series.
- By registering, every competitor declares automatically that he/she agrees to the applicable competition rules.
- The exact timetable of the contest is published on each competition day. By registering, competitors confirm that any visual material (photographs / video recordings) – that are taken or made of them during the Audi Snowboard Series – may be used again, free of charge, in the context of promoting snowboarding.
